The Daily Courant.

Monday, Auguſt 18. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 13.

From the Camp at Bruchſal, July 31.

THE Count of Sezane came back and joyn'd the Army on the 26th, from the Excurſions he had made towards the Tauber, and Franconia, from whence he has brought a great deal of Money, and ſeveral Hoſtages. On the 22d a Detachment of 300 Horſe, commanded by the Marquis de St. Pouange, ſurpriz'd Mariendal, which they pillag'd, and brought off for Hoſtage the Preſident of the Teutonick Order. After this the Count of Sezane put under Contribution the Imperial Towns of Hall in Swabia, and of Elwangen, the County of Hohenloe, the Barony of Limpourg, and other Places, and then repaſs'd the Neckar below Hailbron. In the mean time M. Villars ſettled the Contributions with the Elector of Mentz and the Landgrave of Darmſtadt at 40000 Crowns each, and with the City of Ulm for a like Sum.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Aug. 19.

Nuremberg, Aug. 12. Several Perſons who came from the Enemy's Army have been taken up at Munich: About them were found Letters which mention, that above 200 Officers were ſent from the Duke of Vendome's Army, to get by ſtealth into Bavaria, at the Time the Marſhal Villars was penetrating towards Nordlingen, with Deſign to ſieze that Place or Donawert, in order to engage the Country to take Arms. But that Marſhal being retir'd, without having been able to execute his Deſign, ſeveral of the Officers who made the moſt Haſte to get into Bavaria have been ſiez'd.

From the Camp of the Imperialiſts at Obenhauſen, Aug. 12. Yeſterday Deſerters reported that M. Villars had detach'd for Provence 6 Regiments of Foot, and 5 Squadrons of Horſe; and that 20 Battallions and 32 Squadrons more were to follow them: So that we foreſee the French will ſoon retire into their Lines; and there is a Report that M. Villars himſelf is to go to Provence.

From the Upper-Rhine, Aug. 14. The 8th M. Villars detach'd 8000 Men from Graben to the other ſide of the Rhine, and we have juſt now receiv'd Advice by an Expreſs, that M. d'Immecourt is march'd with 4000 Horſe and 2 Regiments of Swiſs for Provence. The Imperial Army decamp'd Yeſterday at Day-break, and march'd towards Bruchſal; and to Day Fires were above Graben, whence 'tis judg'd the Enemy are decamp'd likewiſe, to retire behind their Lines.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Aug. 18.

Hanover, Aug. 12. This Morning the Elector of Hanover review'd his 2 Regiments that are to go to the Army on the Upper Rhine, and gave them Orders to march to Morrow. Baron Gortz, Preſident of his Electoral Highneſs's Privy Council, who was ſent to the Army on the Upper Rhine to ſee what Condition it is in, and to the Elector of Mentz, to take ſome Care about Neceſſaries for that Army, return'd hither Yeſterday, and has given an Account of his Negociation to his Electoral Highneſs, who will ſoon ſet forward for the Upper Rhine to take upon him the Command of the ſaid Army, but the Day of his Departure is not yet fix'd. We have Advice from Oſnabrug, that the Biſhop of that Place is ſet out from thence for Vienna: That he will take his Way through Saxony, and make a Viſit to the King of Sweden: And that he means to ſtay at Vienna at leaſt a Year, during which time he will very much retrench his Houſhold. His Brother, Prince Francis of Lorrain, to whom the Biſhop had made a Preſent of 50 fine Horſes, is gone from Oſnabrug for Holland; from whence he is to go to his Abbey of Stabelo. The Magiſtrates of Oſnabrug gave their Biſhop a ſplendid Entertainment at Dinner before his Departure, and 6 Pieces of Cannon were brought into the Market-Place, and fir'd at the Drinking of every Health.

Leiden, Aug. 19. Letters from Ghent of the 14th adviſe, that the Day before the Prince of Rubempre had demanded of the Deputies of the Eſtates of Flanders in the Name of King Charles III, 30000 Rations, amounting to 5000 Florins a Day: But that thoſe Deputies had forborn to deliberate thereon, reſolving to make their Report to their Principals: The Prince of Rubempre was afterwards Magnificently treated at Dinner in the Town-Houſe. The Cavalry of Baron Spar had paſs'd by Audenarde, in their way to the Army of the Allies, and was follow'd by the Infantry.

London. 'The following Piece was communicated to us by a Gentleman, with a Deſire it 'ſhould be publiſh'd.

'Leipſich, Auguſt 6. This Day, being the Feſti-'val of St. Anne, was celebrated here with 'great Solemnity. It was begun in the Morning 'with ringing of Bells, while the whole Univerſity 'aſſembled in one Body. Then the Rector of the 'Univerſity, both the Burgermaſters of the City, 'the Profeſſors, and above 100 Graduats, all dreſt 'in their proper Habits, went in Proceſſion to the 'Church of St. Paul where a new Pulpit was 'erected, very finely ſet out with the Arms of Great-'Britain and other Ornaments: At the Door of the 'Church a Guard was plac'd to prevent all Diſtur-'bance that might happen. The Proceſſion was 'receiv'd by 8 Marſhals, moſt Noble-Men, by 'whom alſo the Forreign Miniſters, viz. the Am-'baſſador of Denmark Monſieur Jeſſen, the Britiſh 'Envoy Dr. Robinſon, the Envoys of Holland and 'Hanover Monſieur Cranenburgh and Monſieur 'Groot, and the Pruſſian Miniſter Monſieur Setman, 'were receiv'd and conducted to their Seats, which 'were prepared for them on an eminent Place over 'againſt the Pulpit and hung with fine Tapeſtry, 'where they were ſeated under a Canopy. After the 'Company had been for a while entertain'd with 'a very fine Conſort of Vocal and Inſtrumental 'Muſick by 3 Choirs (the Words ſung were taken 'from the 133d Pſalm which was compos'd into an 'elegant Latin Ode) D. John Burchard Menke, 'Prof. Hiſt. Publ. and a Member of the Royal Society 'of Great-Britain, as the Orator for this Solemnity 'appointed by the Univerſity, pronounc'd a very 'excellent Oration, in Praiſe of Her Majeſty of 'Great-Britain, and the Happy Union of the 2 King-'doms, which was receiv'd with great Applauſe 'from the whole Auditory. The Concourſe of 'People was exceeding great on this Occaſion. 'The Solemnity being over, the Britiſh Envoy Dr. 'Robinſon, gave a very noble Entertainment, at 'which were both the Miniſters of his Imperial 'Majeſty, the Counts of Wratiſlaw and Sintzendorf, 'and all the other Forreign Miniſters reſiding here, the Rector Magnificus, 2 Professors of each Faculty, the Orator Dr. Menke, besides 50 Persons more of the best Quality. Through the whole City was observ'd a general Joy; every Body wishing Her Britannick Majesty a long and prosperous Reign, and to the united Kingdoms uninterrupted Prosperity.

DUBLIN. The 5th of August Mr. Conelly reported from a Committee appointed to examine what Evasions have been used to elude the Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery: That the Committee had been inform'd of several Practices of that kind, particularly in the Case of the Children of Sir James Cotter and in the Case of Richard Aldworth Esq; a Minor; and reported the Matter of Fact in both Cases, which he read in his Place, and after deliver'd in at the Table, where the same were again read.

Ordered, That the Reports be refer'd to the Committee appointed, to prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill to explain and amend an Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery.

Resolved, That any Protestant Guardian that permits a Papist to Educate and Dispose of his Ward, does thereby betray the Trust reposed in him, Evade the Law, and Propagate Popery.

Resolved, That any Papist who shall take upon him to manage and Dispose of the Substance and Person of any Infant committed to a Protestant Guardian, is guilty of a notorious Breach of the Law.

Resolved, That altering a Protestant Guardian, duly appointed, without sufficient Reason, is a Discouragement to the Execution of the Act against the further Growth of Popery.
